

Your career as Young Professional Java Developer (m/f)

PRODYNA AG

We are an international IT service and technology consultancy organization. Our focus is on innovative and customized IT solutions in the Java and open source environment. We offer our employees exciting projects, a various customer portfolio and the opportunity to grow with us, a dynamic and experienced team.

What you can expect

- > Develop and implement user-friendly software solutions in the Java environment (SE/EE)
- > Support conceptual design of the software architecture together with our customers
- > Provide new ideas in the field of software technologies (e.g. Ergonomic, Agility)
- > Get up to speed with innovative technologies and get to know our Open Source partnerships (Sencha, Liferay, Magnolia, Talend and many more)

What we can offer

- > You decide your start date and we will support you through our initial familiarization period with a mentor
- > Individually tailored training and continuing education concept with certifications according to internationally recognized standards such as Oracle, ISTQB and many more
- > Promoting your ideas through our in-house innovation management and expert groups
- > Active teamwork and fun at work with a pleasant working atmosphere and a real team spirit fostered by various events like our winter challenge, diverse marathons, the Tough Mudder and many more

Your qualities

- > Self-confident and convincing manner in customer situations
- > First experiences in Java, web technologies, UML Design and data bases
- > Fluent knowledge of German and English and willingness to travel on a regular basis